Item 2. Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On February 26, 1999 Registrant completed the purchase of three industrial and commercial buildings in Phoenix Arizona having aggregate rentable square feet of 101,482. The Phoenix property is a cluster of three buildings in a master planned industrial park located near Sky Harbor International Airport and adjacent to the Interstate 10 Freeway. The buildings were built in 1996 and are 100% leased to three tenants under triple net leases expiring in 2002 to 2005. Annualized rentals under the leases currently aggregate $845,000. The leases provide for built in rental escalations which approximate current inflation factors based on the CPI index. The buildings were acquired to complete a tax deferred exchange of real property in which $4,500,000 in proceeds from the sale of land in December 1998 were used together with $4,800,000 borrowed from First Union Bank, with the loan secured by the property acquired.

The acquisition price resulted from arm's length negotiations between Registrant and The Douglas Allred Company, the seller of the properties, and, from Registrant's point of view, took into account the prices at which other comparable properties had been sold, the amount of rent payable under the leases, the financial strength of the tenants, the age of the buildings, vacancy factors in the area and the overall demographics and financial outlook for the Phoenix area. Based upon information obtained in connection with the transaction, Registrant believes that the rental rates under the leases are consistent with rental rates typically being paid for other comparable properties, that, while other industrial and commercial properties are available in the vicinity of the properties, vacancy rates are low and the Phoenix area is expected to continue to grow in future years. In purchasing the properties, Registrant also considered the patterns of increasing values of properties located near airports, the fact that all operating expenses are payable by the tenants under the leases and that only limited management of the property would be required. The Phoenix Airport and Interstate 10 corridor has also historically been an important part of the industrial market for the Metro-Phoenix area.

The property acquired was held by the seller as an investment and will be held by Registrant for that purpose as well. The purchase is expected to allow Registrant to improve its current revenue flow. The revenues from the buildings are expected to partially fund on-going real estate activities on Registrant's land and partially offset the ups and downs in Registrant's revenues due to the cyclical nature of the commodity markets where its principal products are sold. The purchase also is expected to allow Registrant to defer federal and state income tax on the proceeds from the December 1998 sale of land.

The foregoing description of factors considered by Registrant in acquiring the properties involve forward looking statements which may not turn out to be correct. Actual results could differ materially from those in the forward looking statements as a result of over-building of commercial and industrial structures in the area, a significant decline the economy of the Phoenix area or the U.S. generally, changes in the financial condition of the tenants, possible unknown defects in the properties and other factors.

6. DUE DILIGENCE

All of Buyer's obligations hereunder are expressly conditioned upon the satisfaction, without material change with respect to the Property and the matters concerning the Property approved by Buyer or deemed approved by Buyer during the Inspection Period or prior to Closing, whichever is earlier, of each of the following terms and conditions in this Section 6 (any one or more of which may be waived in writing in whole or in part by Buyer, at Buyer's option).

Seller hereby represents and warrants to Buyer that Sellers' attorneys have not ordered any geotechnical, soils, structured, or environmental audits or reports other than being given by Buyer as part of the Property Review Documents. In any event, Buyer's request for such additional documentation and materials shall not delay or extend the expiration of the Inspection Period. Seller shall deliver to Buyer a copy of each guaranty or warranty (collectively, "Warranties") in effect as of the date of Seller's execution of this Agreement which relate to the design or construction of the buildings and Improvements or the installation, use or repair of any fixtures, and which are in Seller's actual possession or readily available to it, and copies of all Contracts that will not be canceled or terminated effective upon Closing and which Buyer must assume, prior to the Effective Date.

6.2. Inspection Period; Access; Purchase "As Is".

6.2.1 During the Inspection Period, Buyer, its agents and representatives, shall be entitled to enter upon the Property (as co-ordinated through Seller or Seller's property manager), upon reasonable prior notice to Seller, to perform inspections and tests of the Property, including surveys, environmental studies, examinations and tests of all structural and mechanical systems. Before entering upon the Property, Buyer shall furnish to Seller evidence of general liability insurance coverage in such amounts and insuring against such risks as Seller may reasonably require. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Buyer shall not be permitted to interfere unreasonably with Seller's operations at the Property or interfere with any tenant's operations at the Property, and the scheduling of any inspections shall take into account the timing and availability of access to tenants' premises, pursuant to tenants' rights under the Leases or otherwise. If Buyer wishes to engage in any testing which will damage or disturb any portion of the Property, Buyer shall obtain Seller's prior consent thereto, which may be refused or conditioned as Seller may deem appropriate. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Seller's written approval shall be required prior to any testing or sampling of surface or subsurface soils, surface water, groundwater or any materials in or about the Buildings and Improvements in connection with Buyer's environmental due diligence that involves the drilling, breaking, digging or coring of the building, Improvements or landscaping at the Property. Buyer shall repair any damage to the Property caused by any such tests or investigations, and indemnify Seller from any and all liabilities, claims, costs and expenses resulting therefrom, excluding preexisting conditions not caused by Buyer or its activities with respect to the Property. The foregoing indemnification shall survive Closing or the termination of this Agreement.

6.2.2 Buyer's obligations hereunder are subject to and fully contingent upon Buyer's acceptance, in its sole and absolute discretion, on or before the end of the Inspection Period, of (i) the condition of the Property; (ii) the Property Review Documents; and (iii) such other items and matters set forth in subsections 6.1 and 6.2.1 above. In the event Buyer is not satisfied, in its sole and absolute discretion with the foregoing or otherwise determines that it does not wish to acquire the Property, in its sole and absolute discretion, Buyer may terminate this Agreement by giving written notice of such election to Seller and Escrow Agent on any day prior to and including the final day of the Inspection Period in which event the Earnest Money and all interest earned thereon shall be returned forthwith to Buyer and, except as expressly set forth herein, neither party shall have any further liability or obligation to the other hereunder. In the absence of such written notice, the contingency provided for in this Section shall no longer be applicable, and this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect.

6.2.3 Buyer acknowledges and agrees that, except as otherwise specifically and expressly provided herein and in the conveyancing documents for transfer of the Property, Leases, Contracts, Permits and Warranties delivered and assigned pursuant hereto, Buyer is relying on its inspection and investigation of the Property and is acquiring the Property in its "AS IS" condition, WITH ALL FAULTS, IF ANY, AND WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED. Other than as expressly set forth herein, neither Seller nor any agents, representatives, or employees of Seller have made any representations or warranties, direct or indirect, oral or written, express or implied, to Buyer or any agents, representatives, or employees of Buyer with respect to the condition of the Property, its fitness for any particular purpose, or its compliance with any laws, and Buyer is not aware of and does not rely upon any such representation by or to any other party. Buyer acknowledges that prior to the Effective Date Buyer has been afforded sufficient opportunity to make such inspections (or have such inspections made by consultants) as it desires of the Property and all factors relevant to its use, including, without limitation, the interior, exterior, and structure of all buildings and Improvements, the condition of soils and subsurfaces, the economic value of the Property, adequacy of water, sewage or other utilities serving the Property, the fitness or suitability of the Property for Buyer's intended uses and for the present use of the Property, the physical condition, occupation or management of the Property, the compliance of the Property with applicable statutes, laws, codes, ordinances, regulations or requirements relating to leasing, zoning, subdivision, planning, building, fire, safety, health or environmental matters (including without limitation, the presence or absence of asbestos, petroleum products or toxic or hazardous substances), compliance with covenants, conditions and restrictions (whether or not of record), other local, municipal, regional, state or federal requirements and regulations, and any other matters which are or may be relevant to Buyers' decision whether or not to purchase the Property. Except as to materials as to which Seller specifically represents or warrants otherwise, any information, documents (including, without limitation, the Property Review Documents) or materials which have been or hereafter are made available to Buyer are made available solely as an accommodation to Buyer in the conduct of its due diligence, and Seller makes no representation or warranty as to the accuracy, completeness or deficiency thereof.

6.3. Survey. Buyer may order a Survey of the Property immediately after the Effective Date, at its sole cost and expense. Buyer shall have through the end of the Inspection Period within which to approve or disapprove matters, in its sole and absolute discretion, disclosed by the Survey and to give written notice to Seller of any objection thereto or disapproval thereof. In the event Buyer so notifies Seller of Buyer's objection to or disapproval of the Survey ("Survey Notice"), Buyer may, within ten (10) business days after the issuance of the Survey Notice, waive Buyer's objections to or disapproval of the Survey and agree to accept title to the Property subject thereto, without reduction in the Purchase Price. In the event that Buyer does not waive its objection (via written notice to Seller) within such ten (10) day period, this Agreement shall be deemed terminated, whereupon the Earnest Money, and all interest earned thereon, shall be returned to Buyer. To the extent or in the event Closing occurs, the Survey shall be deemed acceptable to Buyer.

6.4. Title.

6.4.1 Initial Title Commitment and Review. Escrow Agent has previously provided Buyer with a preliminary title report or commitment ("Title Commitment") for an ALTA Form B-1970 Owner's title insurance policy with respect to the Property (with copies of all instruments listed as exceptions to title). Buyer shall have through the end of the Inspection Period within which to examine said Commitment. If Buyer objects to any matters disclosed in the Title Commitment, Buyer shall, within said period, notify Seller in writing ("Title Notice"), specifying with particularity the objectionable matters. In such event, Buyer may, within ten (10) business days after the Title Notice, elect (via written notice to Seller) to waive its objection to any such title matter and agree to accept title subject thereto, and as shown in the Title Commitment, without reduction in the Purchase Price. In the event that Buyer does not so notify Seller in writing within such ten (10) business day period, Buyer will be deemed to have elected to terminate this Agreement, in which event the Earnest Money, and all interest earned thereon, shall be returned to Buyer. Seller agrees to provide to the Escrow Agent and/or Title Insurer, the customary Owner's Affidavit required for issuance of the ALTA Extended Coverage Owners Policy. Seller shall agree to pay off and/or obtain release of any monetary liens against the Property on or before Closing, except current taxes, assessments and other non-monetary encumbrances not required to be paid for the Closing and issuance of the Title Policy at Closing.
-----

6.4.2 Subsequent Title/Survey Changes. If any new or added exceptions appear in any updated or any amended Title Commitment or amended Survey to be delivered by or to Buyer (other than the standard printed exceptions and other than title exceptions that appear in the initial Title Commitment(s) herein, that Buyer determines in Buyer's sole and absolute discretion are unacceptable to it and that would interfere with Buyer's intended use of the Property, or that result in title to the Property not being marketable and insurable, then Buyer may provide written notice to Seller and Escrow Agent of such unacceptable exception(s). If Buyer fails to disapprove an item reflected therein by written notice received by Seller and Escrow Agent within three (3) business days after Buyer's receipt of any amended Title Commitment or updated or revised Survey required pursuant to this Agreement, Buyer shall be deemed to have approved such amended Title Commitment and updated or revised Survey. Seller may, at Seller's option, attempt to eliminate or modify such unacceptable exceptions to the satisfaction of Buyer. Except for payment of existing monetary liens and encumbrances which Seller is required under this Agreement to pay or discharge, Seller has no obligation to endeavor to cure any title objection raised by Buyer, and Seller shall not be required to expend any effort or funds, or to commence litigation to cure an unacceptable title exception. If Seller elects to attempt a cure, but is unable to cure an unacceptable exception prior to the sooner of (i) the Closing Date; or (ii) thirty (30) days after Seller's receipt of Buyer's objections, then within ten (10) days thereafter or by the Closing Date, if sooner, Buyer may terminate this Agreement by notice in writing to Seller and Escrow Agent, and the Earnest Money, and all interest thereon, shall be refunded to Buyer. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Buyer does not terminate this Agreement within the time provided in the preceding sentence. Buyer must close the purchase of the Property subject to and without recourse to Seller for all exceptions shown in any amended Title Commitment(s) and all matters shown on any revised or updated Survey.

6.5. Material Adverse Change. Between the expiration of the Inspection

Period and the date of Closing there shall have been no material adverse change in the financial or physical condition (including environmental or structural) of the Property or any litigation filed affecting the Property or any other matters not accepted or deemed accepted by Buyer during the Inspection Period, and no new material adverse survey or title matter not approved or deemed approved by Buyer pursuant to Sections 6.3 or 6.4 above shall have arisen subsequent to Buyer's receipt of the Survey and Title Commitment referred to in said Sections, unless the same is discharged or endorsed over in Buyer's title policy at Closing. If Seller receives notice or has knowledge of any such change as provided above that may constitute a material adverse change, Seller shall promptly notify Buyer in writing thereof. In the event of a material adverse change in the condition of the Property as referenced above, Buyer shall have five (5) business days after its receipt of actual knowledge or written notice thereof during which to notify Seller in writing, stating the basis therefor and that (i) it elects to accept the Property subject to such change, without reduction in the Purchase Price; or (ii) that Buyer elects to terminate this Agreement for such material adverse change. Prior to such election to terminate being effective, Seller shall have the right (but shall have no obligation whatsoever) to attempt to cure such material adverse change within thirty (30) days from Buyer's written notice to Seller of Buyer's election to terminate ("Material Adverse Change Cure Period"). Should Seller elect to attempt to cure such material adverse change, Seller shall notify Buyer in writing thereof within five (5) business days after Buyer's notice of its election to terminate, in which event the Closing, if it otherwise is scheduled to occur earlier, shall be extended until the earlier of three (3) business days after such material adverse change is cured by Seller or thirty(30) days after Buyer's written notice of election to terminate. Should Seller fail to give notice of its intention to attempt to effectuate such cure prior to the expiration of said five (5) business day period, or if Seller gives timely notice of its intention to attempt to effectuate such cure and thereafter fails to effectuate such cure within the Material Adverse Change Cure Period, such election by Buyer to terminate shall become effective. In the event of a termination pursuant to this Section 6.5 the Earnest Money, together with all interest earned thereon, shall be returned to Buyer. If Buyer does not so notify Seller of its election to terminate within such five (5) business day period, Buyer shall be deemed to have waived such change and to have elected to accept the Property subject to such change, without reduction in the Purchase Price.

6.6 Tenant Estoppel Certificates. Prior to the expiration of the Inspection Period, Seller shall use reasonable efforts to obtain a tenant estoppel certificate, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit "G", duly executed by tenant or tenants, as the case may be, representing 100% of the rentable square footage actually demised under Leases as of the date hereof ("Estoppel Certificate Requirement"). If a different form of Tenant Estoppel Certificate is required pursuant to the terms and conditions in any respective tenant leases, then that form of Tenant Estoppel Certificate shall be utilized herein for said tenant(s). -----

If, before the Close of Escrow, any portion of the Property is damaged by fire or other casualty and the cost to repair such damage exceeds $100,000.00, then (a) Seller shall notify Buyer of such fact, and (b) Buyer may terminate this Agreement upon notice to Seller given no later than twenty-one (21) days after receipt of Seller's notice. If this Agreement is so terminated, then (i) Seller shall pay all costs associated with the cancellation of the Escrow pursuant to this Article, (ii) neither Buyer nor Seller will have any further rights or obligations under this Agreement except for those matters that expressly survive termination hereunder, and (iii) Seller or Escrow Holder (without requiring any further instruction from Seller) shall immediately return to Buyer the Deposit . If Buyer does not so terminate this Agreement, then Buyer and Seller shall proceed to the Close of Escrow in accordance with this Agreement, without modification of the terms of this Agreement, except that (a) the Purchase Price will be reduced by the amount of any insurance proceeds paid to Seller as of the Closing Date and by the amount of any deductible.

Buyer may, at its election, on or before the Closing Date, convey, transfer and assign to any partnership, corporation, trust or other entity or entities (including, without limitation, three single-member limited liability companies - - each to own a building and the underlying real estate) designated by Buyer (Designee), all of Buyer's right, title, and interest in, to, and under this Agreement and the Escrow, provided that the assignment is in writing, the Designee expressly assumes in writing all of Buyer's obligations under this Agreement and the Escrow, the Buyer transfers all rights to the Earnest Money to the Designee, and the Designee is financially able to complete the purchase of the Property. If Buyer assigns this Agreement in accordance with the preceding sentence, then from and after such assignment, (a) Buyer (as used in this Agreement) means the Designee and (b) Buyer is released from any liability under this Agreement and the Escrow. Except as expressly set forth in the preceding sentence, neither Buyer nor Seller may assign, delegate, or otherwise transfer to any other person any rights or obligations with respect to the Property or under this Agreement or the Escrow without the prior written consent of the other party. Except to the extent limited by this paragraph, this Agreement binds and inures to the benefit of the successors and assigns of the parties to this Agreement.

24. BROKERS.

Each party to this Agreement represents that no real estate broker, agent, finder, or other person is responsible for bringing about or negotiating this Agreement other than CB Richard Ellis ("Broker") and that such party has not dealt with any real estate broker, agent, finder, or other person other than Broker relative to this Agreement in any manner. All commissions payable to Broker shall be the sole responsibility of Seller. Each party to this Agreement shall defend and indemnify the other party to this Agreement against all liabilities, damages, losses, costs, expenses, attorneys' fees and claims arising from (a) any breach of such representation by such indemnifying party set forth in this Section, and (b) any claims that may be made against such indemnified party by any real estate broker, agent, finder, or other person alleging to have acted on behalf of or to have dealt with such indemnifying party.

25. MISCELLANEOUS.

25.1. Governing Law, Venue and Jurisdiction. The parties agree that this

-----

Agreement is governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Arizona and that all actions and proceedings arising in connection with this Agreement must be tried and litigated exclusively in the State and courts located in the County of Maricopa, State of Arizona, which courts have personal jurisdiction and venue over each of the parties to this Agreement for the purpose of adjudicating all matters arising out of or related to this Agreement. Each party authorizes and accepts service of process sufficient for personal jurisdiction in any action against it as contemplated by this paragraph by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, to its address for the giving of notices set forth in this Agreement.

25.2. Further Assurances. Each party to this Agreement shall execute and deliver all instruments and documents and take all actions as may be reasonably required or appropriate to carry out the purposes of this Agreement.

25.3. Counterparts and Exhibits. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which is deemed an original and all of which together constitute one document. All exhibits attached to and referenced in this Agreement are incorporated into this Agreement.

25.4. Time of Essence. Time and strict and punctual performance are of the essence with respect to each provision of this Agreement.
-----

25.5. Attorney's Fees. The prevailing party(ies) in any litigation,
-----
arbitration, mediation, bankruptcy, insolvency or other proceeding ("Proceeding") relating to the enforcement or interpretation of this Agreement may recover from the unsuccessful party(ies) all costs, expenses, and actual attorney's fees (including expert witness and other consultants' fees and costs) relating to or arising out of (a) the Proceeding (whether or not the Proceeding proceeds to judgment), and (b) any post-judgment or post-award proceeding including, without limitation, one to enforce or collect any judgment or award resulting from the Proceeding. All such judgments and awards shall contain a specific provision for the recovery of all such subsequently incurred costs, expenses, and actual attorney's fees.

25.6. Modification. This Agreement may be modified only by a contract in writing executed by the party to this Agreement against whom enforcement of the modification is sought.
-----

25.7. Prior Understandings. This Agreement and all documents specifically
-----
referred to and executed in connection with this Agreement: (a) contain the entire and final agreement of the parties to this Agreement with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement, and (b) supersede all negotiations, stipulations, understandings, agreements, representations and warranties, if any, with respect to such subject matter, which precede or accompany the execution of this Agreement. No agreements, statements or promises about the subject matter hereof shall be binding or valid unless they are contained herein or in a subsequent written amendment signed by the parties hereto.

25.8. Interpretation. Whenever the context so requires in this Agreement, all words used in the singular may include the plural (and vice versa) and the word "person" includes a natural person, a corporation, a firm, a partnership, a joint venture, a trust, an estate or any other entity. The terms "includes" and "including" do not imply any limitation. No remedy or election under this Agreement is exclusive, but rather, to the extent permitted by applicable law, each such remedy and election is cumulative with all other remedies at law or in equity. The paragraph headings in this Agreement: (a) are included only for convenience, (b) do not in any manner modify or limit any of the provisions of this Agreement, and (c) may not be used in the interpretation of this Agreement.

25.9. Partial Invalidity. Each provision of this Agreement is valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law. If any provision of this Agreement (or the application of such provision to any person or circumstance) is or becomes invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid or unenforceable, are not affected by such invalidity or unenforceability.

25.10. Notices. Each notice and other communication required or permitted to be given under this Agreement ("Notice") must be in writing. Notice is duly given to another party upon: (a) hand delivery to the other party, (b) receipt by the other party when sent by facsimile to the address and number for such party set forth below (provided, however, that the Notice is not effective unless a duplicate copy of the facsimile Notice is promptly given by one of the other methods permitted under this paragraph), (c) three business days after the Notice has been deposited with the United States postal service as first class certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, and addressed to the party as set forth below, or (d) the next business day after the Notice has been deposited with a reputable overnight delivery service, postage prepaid, addressed to the party as set forth below with next-business-day delivery guaranteed, provided that the sending party receives a confirmation of delivery from the delivery-service-provider.

must be in writing. No such waiver constitutes a waiver of any other default or provision concerning the same or any other provision of this Agreement. No delay or omission by a party in the exercise of any of its rights or remedies constitutes a waiver of (or otherwise impairs) such right or remedy. A consent to or approval of an act does not waive or render unnecessary the consent to or approval of any other or subsequent act.

25.12. Drafting Ambiguities. Each party to this Agreement and its legal counsel have reviewed and revised this Agreement. The rule of construction that ambiguities are to be resolved against the drafting party or in favor of the party receiving a particular benefit under an agreement may not be employed in the interpretation of this Agreement or any amendment to this Agreement.

25.13. Third Party Beneficiaries. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to confer any rights or remedies on any person or entity other than the parties to this Agreement and their respective successors-in-interest and permitted assignees.

25.14. Time Periods. Unless otherwise expressly provided herein, all periods for delivery or review and the like shall be determined on a "calendar" day basis. If any date for performance, approval, delivery or Closing falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday (state or federal) in the State of Arizona, the time therefor shall be extended to the next business day.

25.15. Use of Proceeds to Clear Title. To enable Seller to make conveyance as herein provided, Seller may, at the time of Closing, use the Purchase Price or any portion thereof to clear the title of any or all encumbrances or interests, provided that provision reasonably satisfactory to Buyer's attorney is made for prompt recording of all instruments so procured in accordance with conveyancing practice in the jurisdiction in which the Property is located.

25.16. Submission not an Offer or Option. The submission of this Agreement or a summary of some or all of its provisions for examination or negotiation by Buyer or Seller does not constitute an offer by Seller or Buyer to enter into an agreement to sell or purchase the Property, and neither party shall be bound to the other with respect to any such purchase and sale until a definitive agreement satisfactory to the Buyer and Seller in their sole discretion is executed and delivered by both Seller and Buyer.
